

Colleges and Seminaries Claiming To Teach A Literal Genesis

Answers in Genesis is not officially recommending these schools. We recommend personal contact with any school under consideration for attendance. Not all schools on the list share the same theological or denominational backgrounds. Individual instructors may vary in their own views and curricula. This list is intended only to provide the names of those institutions that claim to teach a literal Genesis, consisting of six–24 hour days, a young Earth, no death before sin and a global Flood.
